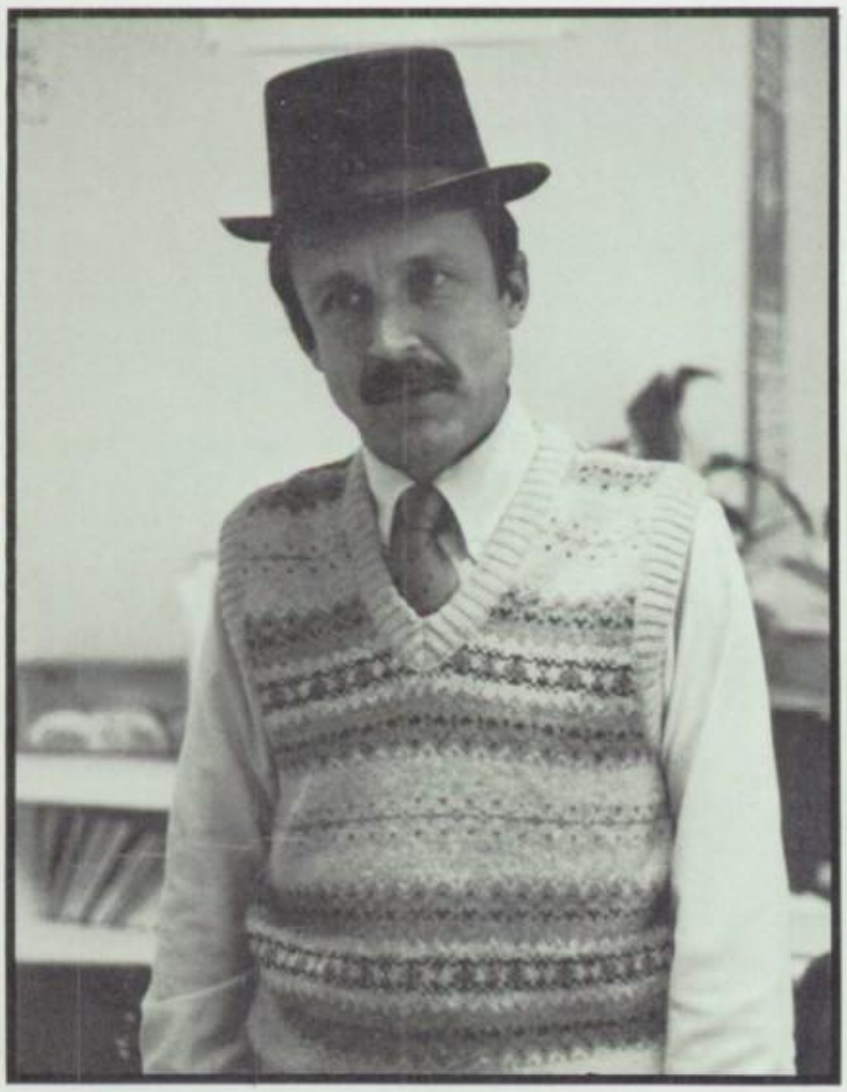
GOOD LUCK!

The Class of 1987 Dedicates this Yearbook to Mr. Wadleigh & Mr. Margulis

I am not a teacher: only a fellow-traveller of whom you asked the way. I pointed ahead—ahead of myself as well as of you.

Bernard Shaw

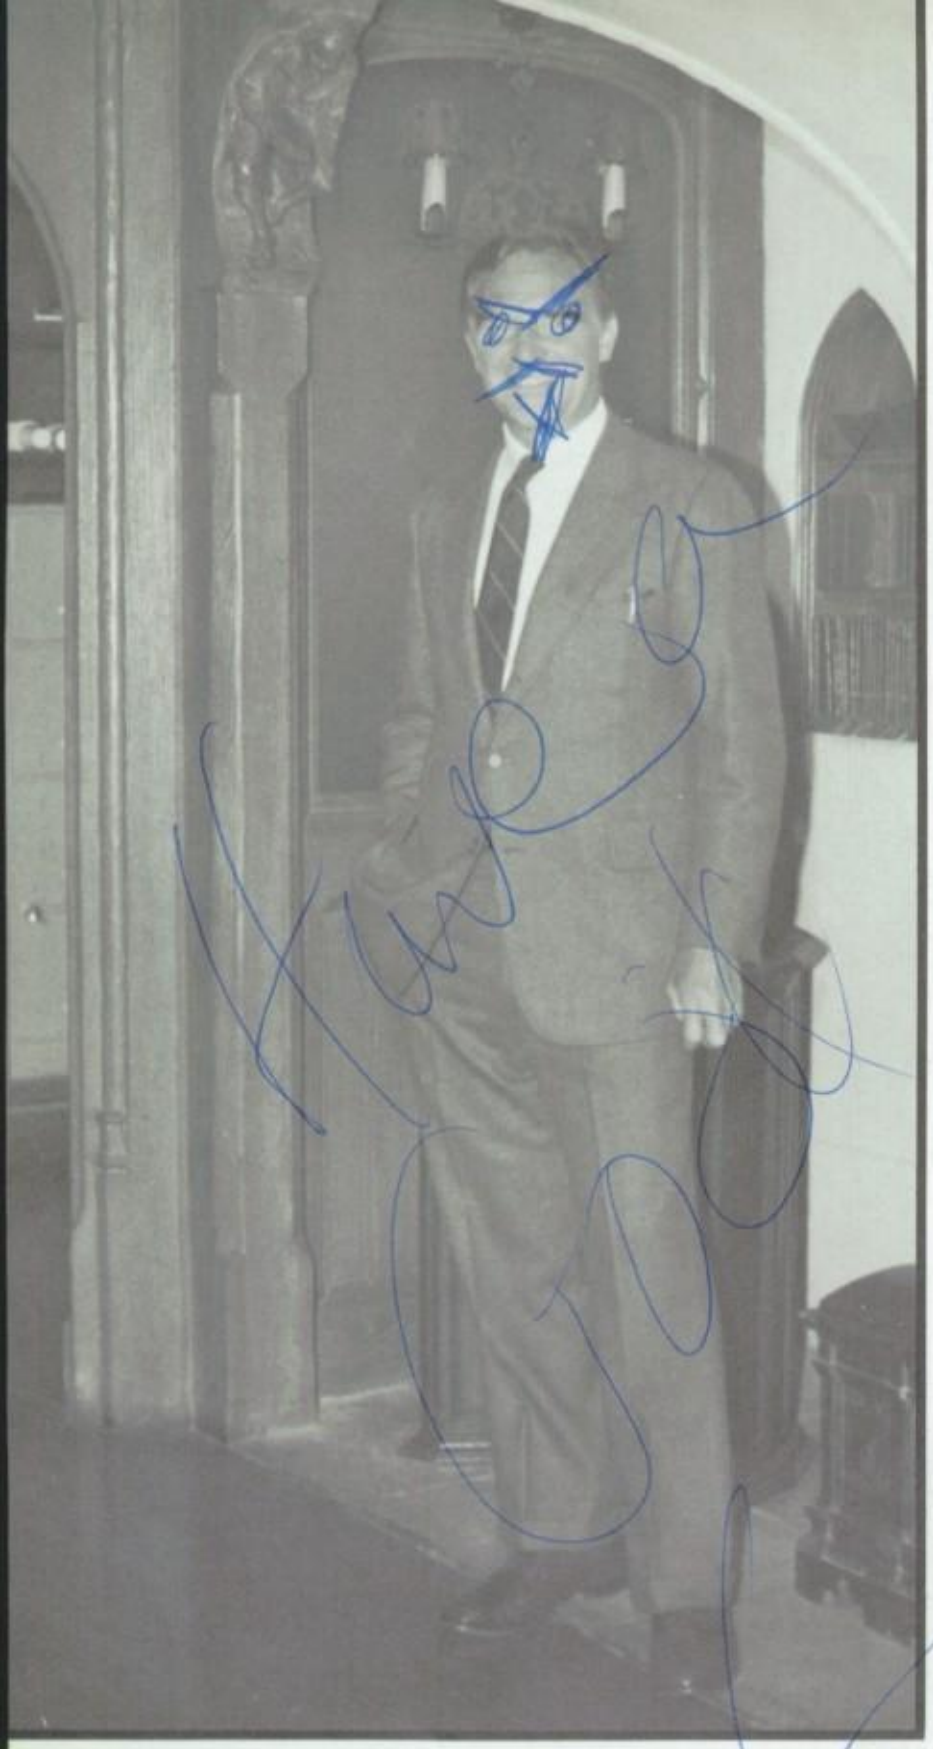


To Mr. Wadleigh:

To the man with the jokes, the hats, the funny costumes, the man who sang "The Hunters of Kentucky," the man who through his generosity and good humor earned our love and respect, here is a long-deserved thank-you from an appreciative class.

To Mr. Margulis:

More than English, you taught us about life and ourselves. You always treated us with respect, even though we didn't deserve it at times. Thanks for being there for us more times than we can count.



Headmaster

Something made the school feel very good this year. For that, I believe we can thank you, the class of 1987. Your example of earnest care for your school and its people set the tone.

The world out there is now "your apple." Scary, but fun! Amid future moments of terror, because you put yourself on the line, and exultation, because you succeed, never forget what your old school asks of you:

Be honest. Be kind.
Work hard. Help people.
And be of good cheer!

Your teachers and I salute you and thank you. Godspeed!

Richard Loveland

Taking Exams

Unlike Christmas, they come twice a year, but golly aren't they fun! In the words of the famous sophomore song:

Exam party tonight!
Alright!
Exam party tonight!
Alright!
We're gonna study Bio tonight!
Alright!
We're gonna pass out on our books tonight!
Alright!
We're gonna cram till we explode tonight!
Alright!

"Don't cheat off me!!!"

What is the Middle Schoolers' favorite time of day?

SCHOOL STARTS

b

LUNCH TIME

c

CARTOON TIME

d

BED TIME (EXCLUDING A-TEAM NIGHTS)

ANSWER:

The correct answer is B. The intelligent observer will note the anticipation on the middle schooler's face as he anxiously awaits the faculty signal to commence the rampage for franks 'n' beans. Many upper classmen take particular pleasure in noting that Chester the Yellow Dog gets a square meal an average of 18 minutes before the first middle schooler wraps his tongue round a juicy bean.

SECTION II: FRESHMAN

POETRY ANALYSIS:
Instructions: Read the following poem and answer the questions in the space provided.

The following poem was written by angry monks of the Spanish Inquisition. It has been edited for exam use.

Ode To The Frosh

Welcome to our school,
we think you're all so cool.
Your uniform is you,
bright white and navy blue.
We dig your corduroy,
tall girl and little boy.
You bike up Uplands drive,
fear is in your eye.
You don't have but one friend,
this day will never end.

First bell, where to go?
ask a senior, sure he'll know.
He chuckles as he points the way,
what a great start to your first day.
You get up to the third floor,
and knock upon the first door.
You poke your head inside,
that senior must have lied.
Laughter echoes from within,
but Mommy said lying was a sin.

You get to where you're supposed to go,
but class has started long ago.
From both shoulders, you remove your pack,
exposing "kick me" on your back.
Your teacher says, "Welcome to my class",
this year will be a pain in the head.

1. The monks who wrote the poem were most likely angry because
a) Chester the Yellow Dog ate their franks 'n' beans.
d b) WHAM! broke up.
c) even in the 1500's freshmen were, well, freshmen. You know.
d) a scavenger hunt team borrowed their monastery bell.

2. What is the reason for laughter echoing from the room in line 19?
a) The frosh was drooling.
c b) Dr. Shult told a joke.
c) You never need a reason to laugh at something funny.
d) Because Crystal Springs Uplands is a real fun school.

3. It can be inferred from the passage that the senior:
a) is a really funny guy.

c) fibbed.
d) symbolized the leftist movement in the 1500's.

This is the springtime of my loving -
The second season I am to know
You are the sunlight in my growing -
So little warmth I felt before.
It isn't hard to feel me glowing -
I watched the fire that grew so low.
It is the summer of my smiles -
Flee from me Keepers of the Gloom.
Speak to me only with your eyes
It is to you I give this tune.
It isn't hard to recognize -
These things are clear to all from time to time.

Talk Talk -
I felt the coldness of my winter
I never thought it would ever go
I cursed the gloom that set upon us
But I know I love you so
But I know I love you so.

These are the seasons of emotion
And like the winds they rise and fall.
This is the wonder of devotion -
I see the torch we all must hold.
This is the mystery of the quotient -
Upon us all a little rain must fall.

But make allowance for their doubting too...
If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thought your aim...
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings - nor lose the common touch...
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it.
And - which is more - you'll be a man...

Hurray Gryphons! Uplands' first year of varsity football was a surprise to us all. They really took off after their first few games with their unpredicted crushing defeat of the Woodside Priory team; that got their pictures in the Crystal Springs Uplands newsletter. Team spirits were dampened by charges of recruiting and "the big steroids scare." Allegations of steroid use were dismissed by star running back David Apple, who claimed, "I could always bench 475!" Further studies by officials indicated that the school's cafeteria food is "just plain good for you." Other highlights of the season included being on the Oprah Winfrey Show after their narrow victory over the New York Giants. Since the Uplands team consists mainly of Freshmen, Coach Szumilas foresees another winning season ahead.
F Uplands really has a football team.

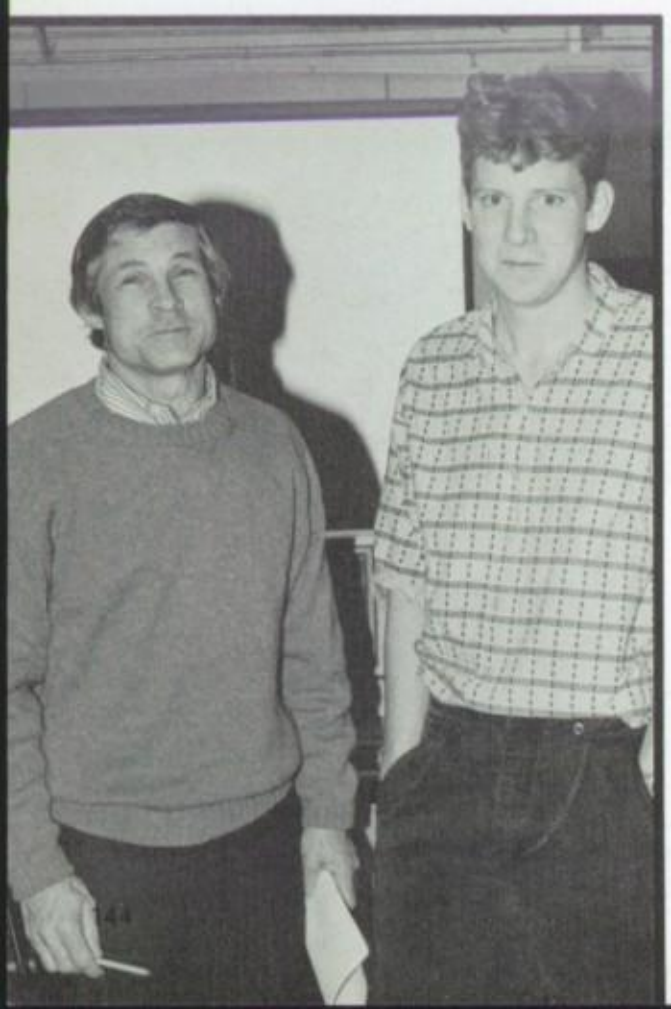
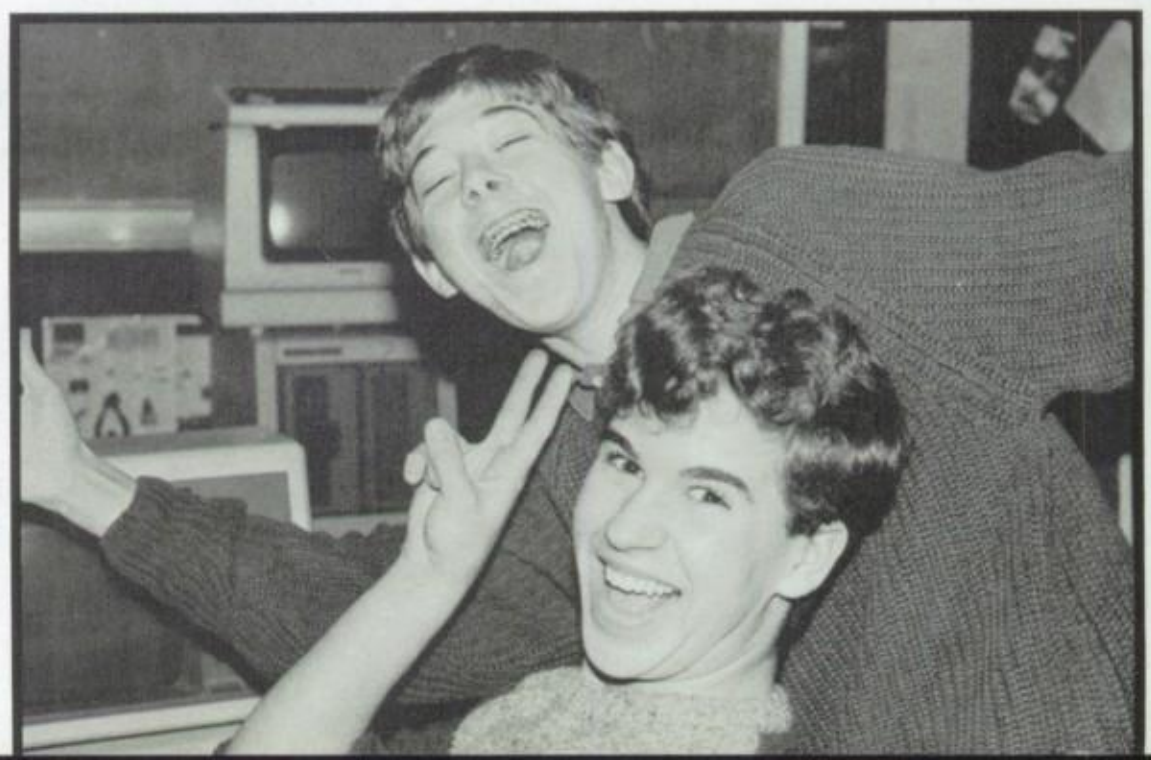
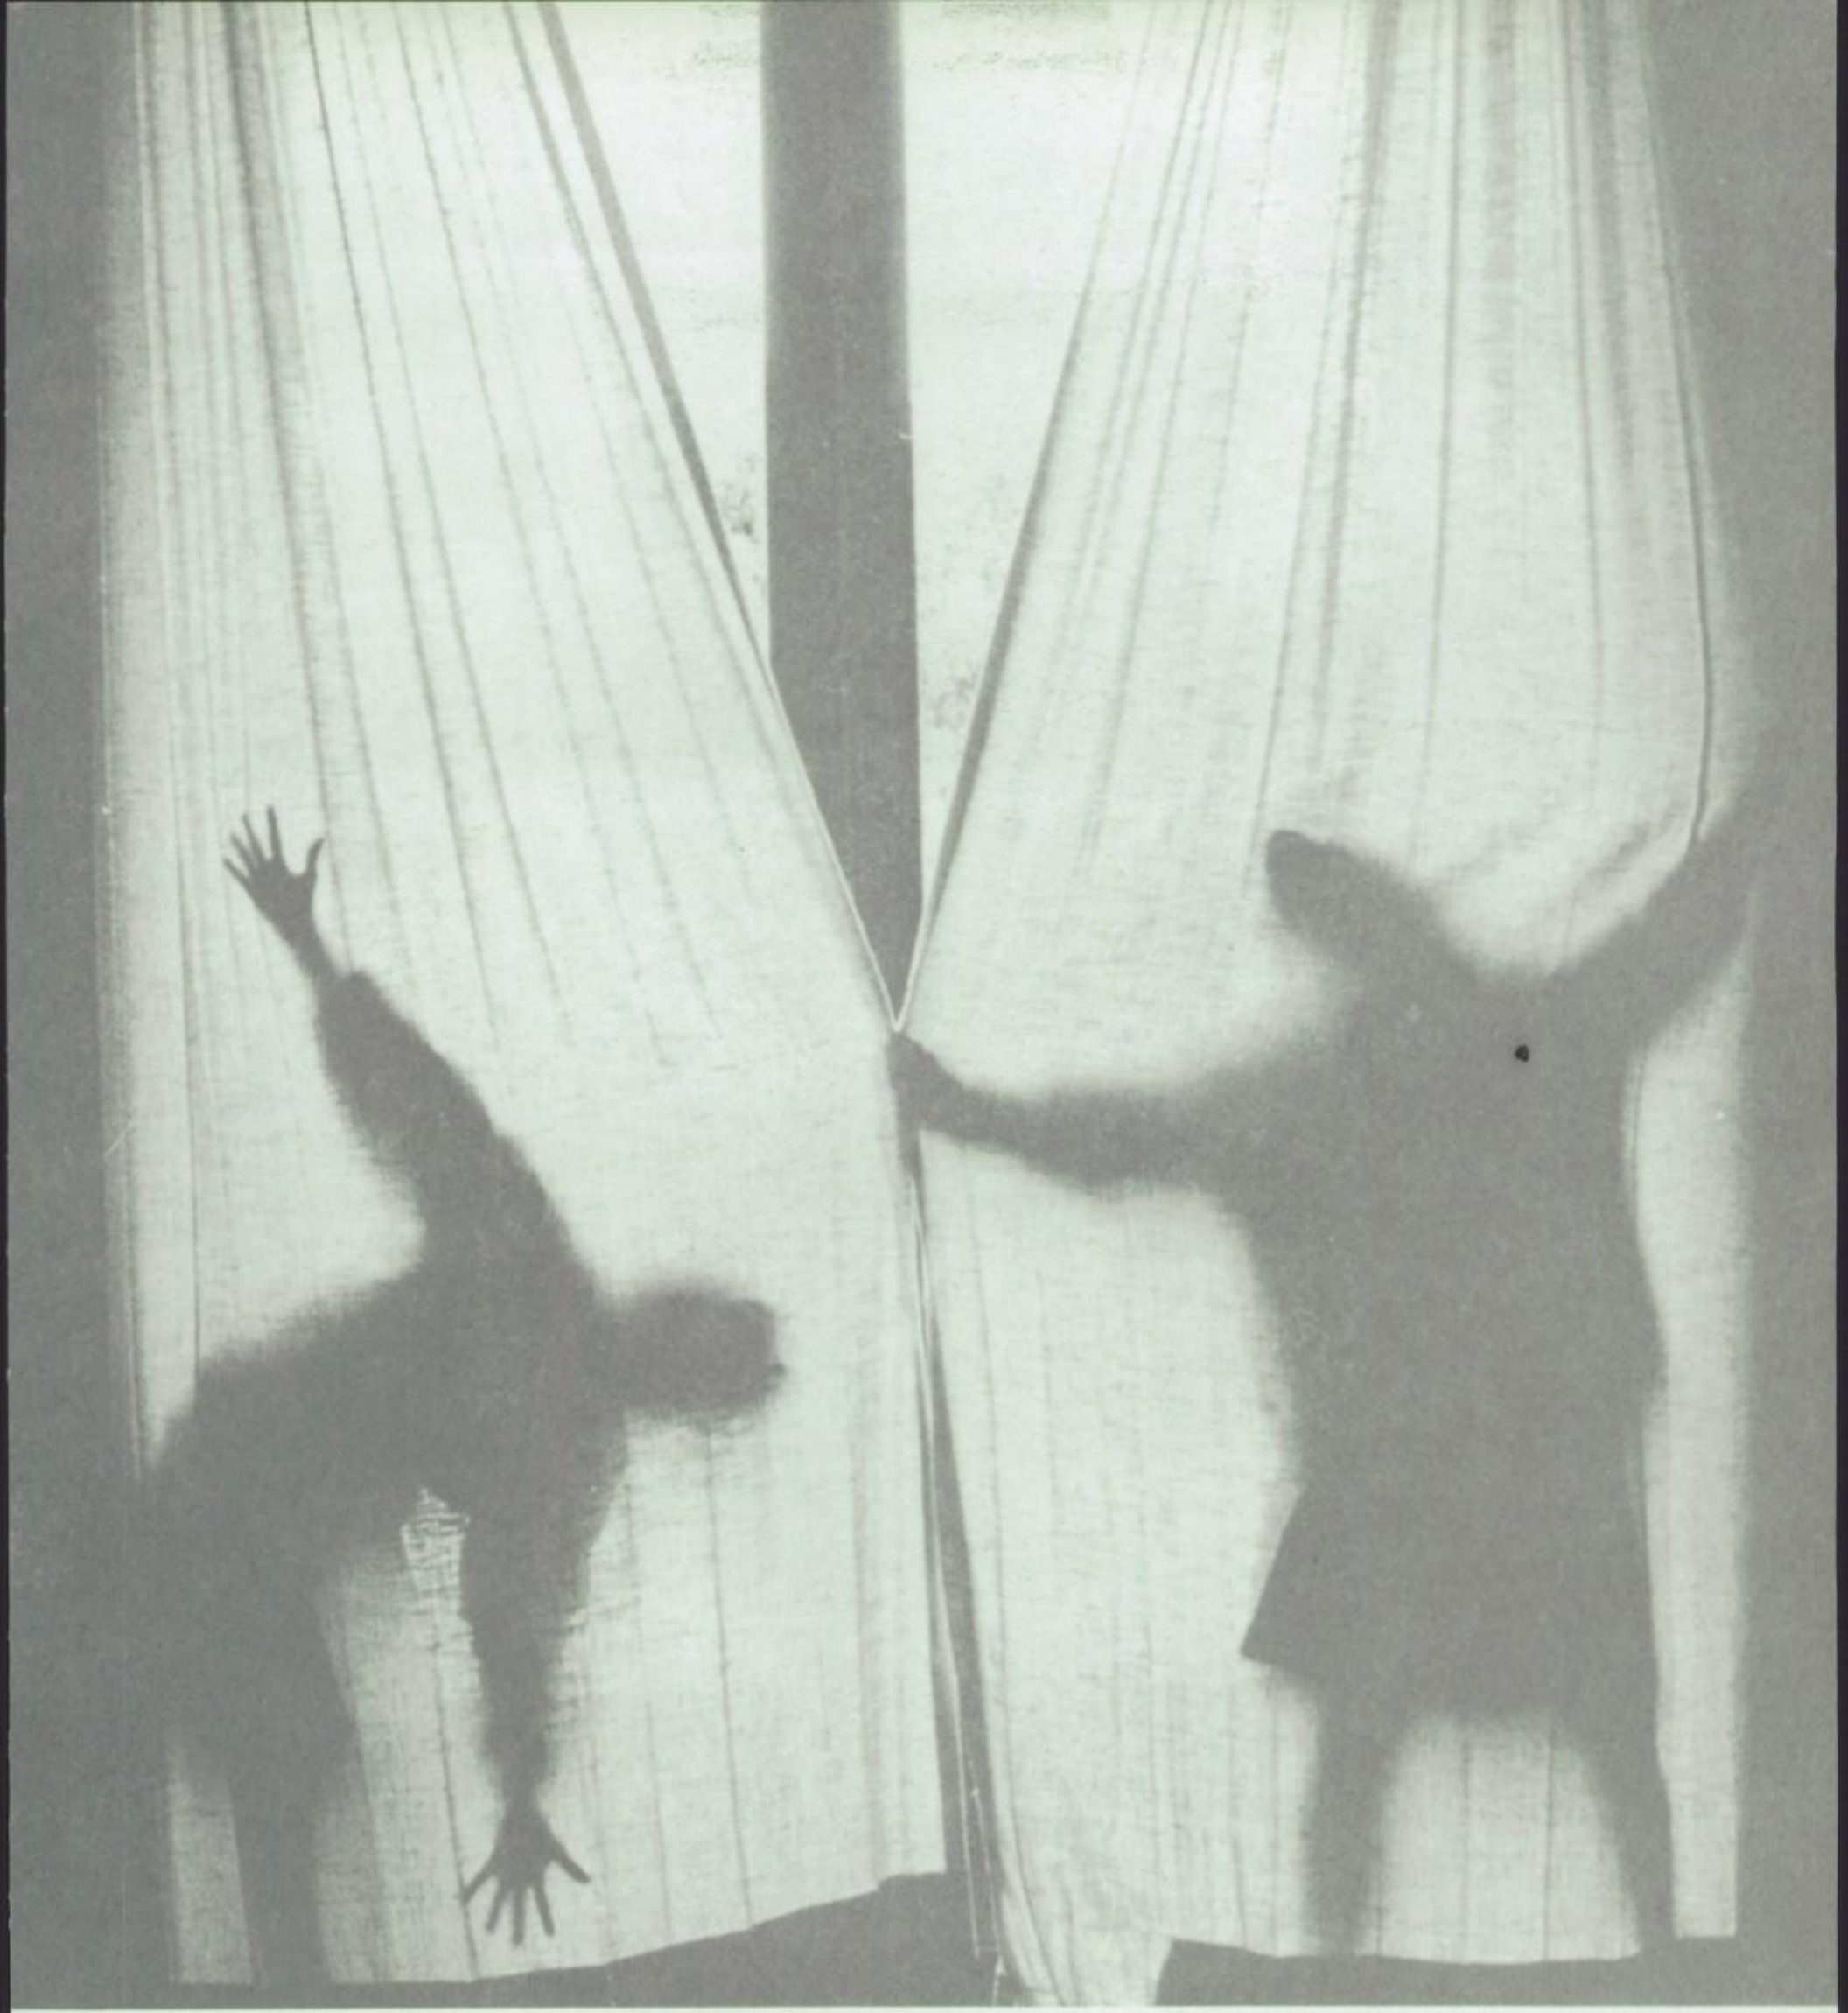
VOLUME I NUMBER I | Crystal Springs Uplands School | November 1986 | SIX DOLLARS

This is the staff of the school's newspaper, which made a triumphant comeback after having virtually ceased publication. Most of the credit should be given to the energetic editors and their sponsor, Mr. Margulis.







Crystal Visions, the school's literary magazine, serves as a catalyst for creative expression at CSU. Published twice yearly, the magazine involves the editing and artistic efforts of a growing representation of the student body. The editors select poetry, prose, expository writing, drawing, photography, and art submitted by the student body, chosen not only for stylistic proficiency, but for the capacity to challenge the reader with provocative statements. The magazine attempts to represent the best efforts of the entire student body.

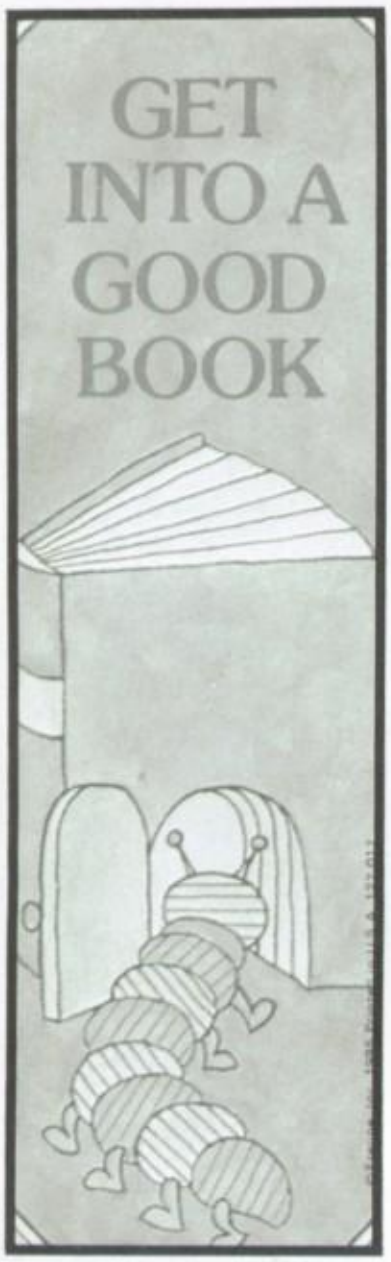
Crystal Visions

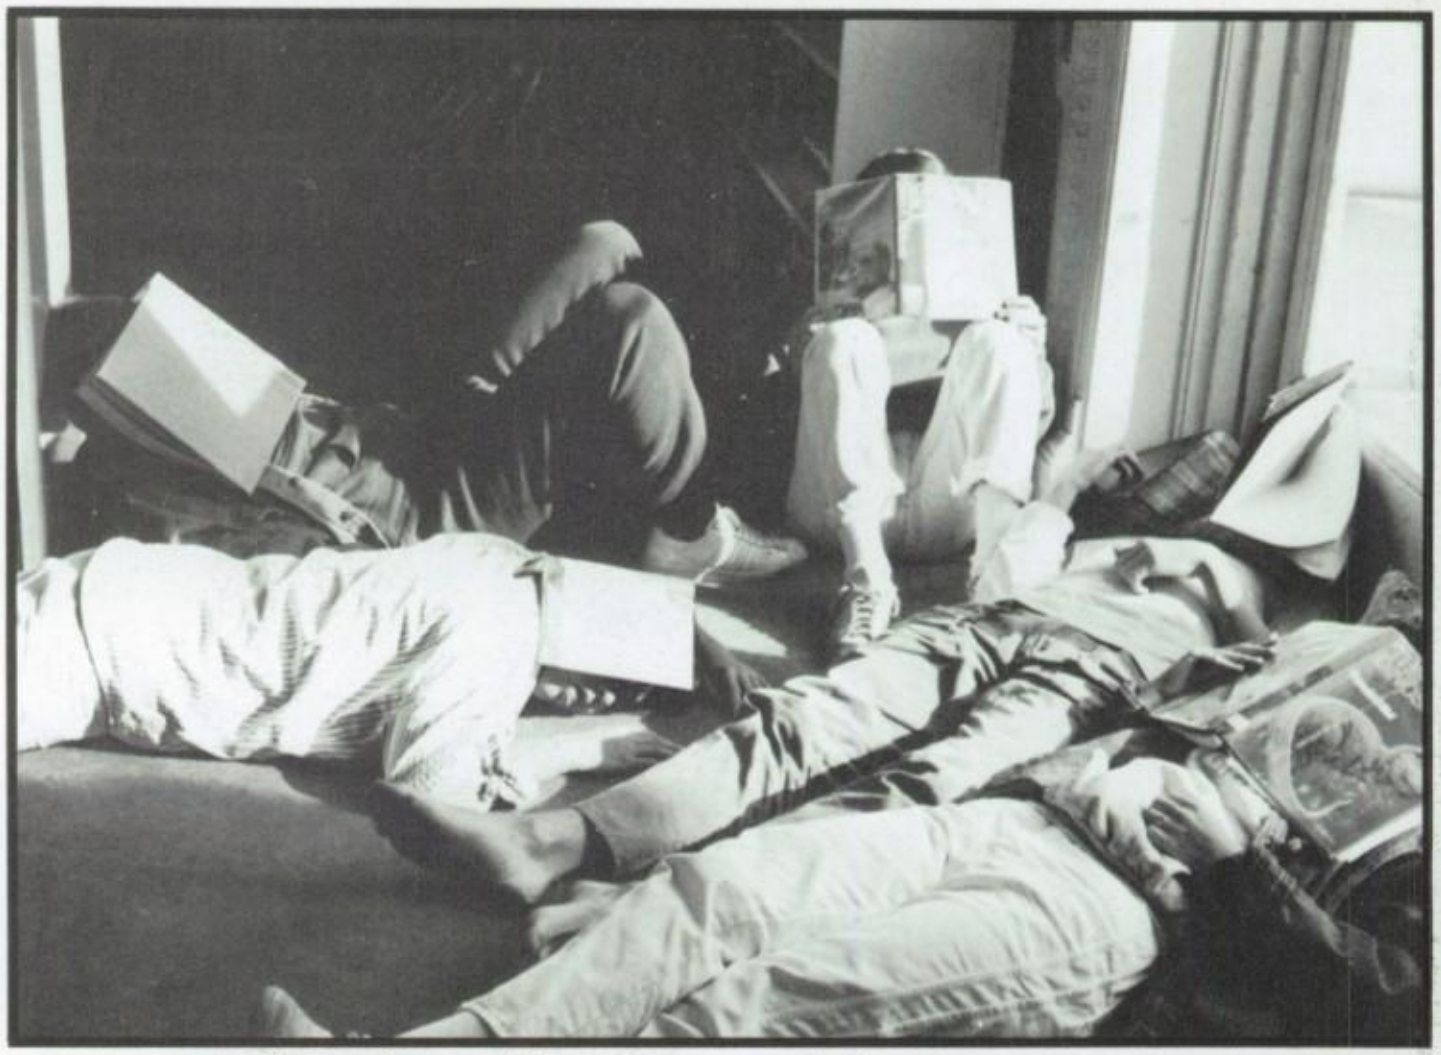
Amnesty International is an organization that is working to free, or at least relieve political prisoners. The headquarters, when hearing of a political prisoner, will notify all chapters. Then, at a meeting, the members will each write to the government involved, asking for the release of the prisoner. In many cases in the past, the prisoner was freed or treated much better.

These are the yearbook editors. They are not responsible for the misspelled names, missing pictures, and tactless humor; Helen is.

The weightlifting club is a group of healthy people (in mind and body) who seek the perfection of their physical self. They meet several times a week to both socialize and work out.

This is the Lacrosse Club. It is for athletes who don't know much about lacrosse and are just learning how to play. Thanx, Mrs. Publicover ☺





The story time nap club ↑ meets in the library. One person reads a story out loud and the other people flake out.

These people like to run. They have fun when they run. They also tell jokes as they run. The members of the club are in this picture but the "Running Club" is not there.

The Junior State

JSA (JUNIOR STATESMEN of AMERICA) is a student-run, nationwide organization designed to familiarize students with the political processes of our country. In addition to debating, participating in mock trials, and speaking in impromptu speaking contests, our chapter members formed one of the largest delegations at the Northern California Fall State Convention this year.

"Franks 'n beans! Franks 'n beans! I'm gonna get me some Franks 'n Beans!"

The Save Chester Foundation was founded when Chester was dognapped and was going to be put to sleep by the Pound. After saving him from the brink of death, the organization has worked towards making Chester the new school mascot. Even if this goal is not achieved, Chester has become one of the greatest folk heroes of our time.
